Angela Renea Smith Watton, age 44, of Buckhannon, died Sunday, December 3, 2017, at Ruby Memorial Hospital in Morgantown. She was born on May 30, 1973, a daughter of the late James Eugene Oldaker and Nancy Lou Newsome Oldaker Humphrey, who survives. On August 31, 2017, she was united in marriage to William Watton who survives. Also surviving are one daughter Courtney and husband Aarron Riffle of Buckhannon; two grandchildren: Carter and Heidi Riffle of Buckhannon; three brothers: Jamie Oldaker of Buckhannon, Jeffrey Oldaker and companion Melissa of Sharon, SC, and William Humphrey of Buckhannon; paternal grandparents Kelcel and Duetta Oldaker; and two special nieces: McKayla and Madison Oldaker. Angela was a loving wife, mother, and grandmother who greatly cherished her family. Friends and family will long remember and sorely miss her contagious laugh, her happy disposition, and her outgoing personality. Her smile could light up any room and her positive outlook on life enabled her to find the best in even the worst of situations. She was a woman with many different interests and hobbies including fishing, camping, horseback riding and four-wheeler riding, painting, and especially going to yard sales. She enjoyed traveling, particularly to the beach, and her family will long remember her love for cooking and the delicious foods she prepared for them. Her dog, Storm, brought special joy to her life, as did all animals--big and small. She was a member of the Birches Women's Group.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Angie's passing. She babysat for me in the late 80-s, watching my sons after school. Such an outgoing personality and great smile. I pray that the family finds comfort in God's promises and the many memories of your daughter, sister, wife, mom, and grandmother that you hold in your heart. My condolences - Bobbi Curran

My Aunt Angie will ALWAYS have a place in my heart, her life was a blessing to not only me, but to everyone who was blessed to know her!! One of my favorite memories is riding my bike up the road and sitting on the porch swinging with her just enjoying the scenery outside!! I will always keep your memory alive in my heart!! I love you Aunt Angie, until we meet again.. Brinleigh Turner
