“ I've known Bertha since childhood and she was a terrific lady, fun to be around and had a great sense of humor. She and Don always welcomed me into their home and were like family to me. Rest in Peace. My condolences go out to the family.

“ Bertha was an amazing person always working hard. She was a loving grand mother. She loved vacationing with her grand children, We had lots of fun through the years. We'll cherish our memories we made with her & Don. I visited her two weeks ago she showed the same strength that she always had in life such a tough lady. We had good visit, We shared memories, we laugh, the time was precious. Rest now Bertha dance with our love ones in Heaven.” We will miss you dearly”
