“ So sorry to hear about Betty Jo's passing. She was my 2nd 'mom' when you guys lived in Baden. I loved visiting at your house Julie, and making popcorn, playing guitars and listening to music together. I send you our prayers and hugs from the Holcomb family. God's kingdom in heaven got a little bit brighter! Blessings, Donna

“ Betty Jo had such a wonderful impact on our lives. I knew her my whole life but when we became neighbors with her and Ross, our friendship blossomed. Whether it was having a cup of coffee and a slice of her wonderful pie at her table, or her coming up to give me a break when she heard my colicky baby, she taught me a lot about selfless love and kindness and I will love and miss her until we meet again in Heaven. God rest your sweet soul Betty Jo.

“ Betty will be missed but I'll always have great memories of her. She was a kind, loving person and never failed to let me know she appreciated me. I'll miss sitting on her back porch chatting in the summertime.
