“ Life is full of wonderful people. Ms. Betty, you are one of those people. Never will I forget our childhood and the great times we had as next door neighbors. It wasn't all about stoved thumps, burnt popcorn, and zebra burns on your legs. Instead it was about walking to school to swing on the swings, leaving notes for one another, and Saturday night dances among other childhood goodness. One day the gang will all be together again. I hope we aren't too rowdy while we dance around the throne. I regret I can't send you a proper send off.. I'm sure you know what I am doing today. Just know this too my sweet friend, I love you. “ Dear, Sweet Betty. I thought of you often and wondered how you were doing. I am happy that you are no longer suffering. I will never forget what a great friend you were from the time I first met you in the sixth grade. I remember all the nights I spent at your house and how kind your family was to me. I will never forget our high school days, especially tenth grade homeroom. You, Charrolet Barnett, and I had a blast. RIP, my friend, and enjoy those angel wings. You are so deserving.

“ Life certainly will not be the same around here without you. We will miss seeing that little red wagon getting pulled to the house with all those weeds in it after a long day.

We will miss hearing the pounding of nuts in the fall. We will miss the orneriness that you could put a smile on our face. You made a couple young grandboys of mine so happy. He enjoyed spending time watching you sew and loved those icecream bars you made. I still have all the strawberries costumes you made for the dog pet show.

We watched you suffer and it was so hard, we're going to miss you so very much but am so glad the pain has finally left.

No one could have asked for better neighbors than you and Chuck. To him and your family. I know how much you will miss her but that smile above says it all. The pain is over So sorry for all of you.
