“ David and I offer our deepest condolences to Blanche's family. She was such a sweet Christian lady, who was full of energy and always so friendly. I enjoyed talking with her at Bell and Charlie Allen's cookouts many years ago. We can only imagine the wonderful reunion with her beloved husband Glen and her baby girl. May her soul rest in peace.

“ Grandma ,
I remember being in the kitchen getting chocolate milk and zero bars , I remember taking your rugs out to sit under the weeping cherry , sliding down the stairs on our bums , i remember laying on one side and Gloria on the other as you tickled our backs to get us relaxed and ready for sleep a tradition you kept through all the kids. I remember the warm oil and cotton balls in my ear when I had an earache , the oatmeal and cocoa wheats for breakfast and even the warm prune juice when it was needed. I remember the change purse and the walk to Tenneys store to get penny candy by the bag fulls , grandma I remember the love you gave us ... the holidays we were all together laughing and eating the candies, cookies and pies you made ... but the thing I will remember the most is the praying you did with me and the way you raised your hands in the air thanking the lord and clapping . Rest now grandma. We know you and grandpa are walking hand in hand holding your baby girl ☐ I love you always - forever your granddaughter Tina ☐

What a sweet, sweet woman, always so friendly and caring. Larry, Ron and Tom, please accept our sincere condolences. You know we knew Blanche forever and always looked forward to seeing her. She never failed to ask about everyone in the family and was always interested in what they were doing. She was a beautiful soul inside and out & she loved her family dearly.
