“ Prayers and deepest condolences to you all. I have many wonderful memories of our families together growing up – Sunday dinners, holiday dinners, canning days, and many others because we didn't need an “occasion” to get together. Aunt Charolet was always smiling and ready for a joke; whether on her or someone else. Do you remember Gary spinning you guys around on his shoulders in Grandma's yard? Aunt Charolet said, “Boy, am I glad he can't do that to me” and an instant later he was spinning her I can still hear her laughter! She was willing to help with anything and was so good to Grandma and Grandpap. And then there was her chocolate cake with peanut butter icing.....mmmmm good! So many great memories. Love and prayers to you all.
