“ Danny was a wonderful friend and man. I remember him so well from our high school days and I always enjoyed running in to him when I've seen him since then. Our last time was at our high school reunion this past July. He was as special then as ever. I'm so sorry he had to have this illness and I really admire his wife and family for taking such good care of him. My sympathies and very best wishes to them all, now and going forward. RIP Danny. God bless you all.
