“ Dearest Deena, I can't believe I finally found you, but too late. Deena and I were childhood friends, we were only 4 and 5 when we met, we lived just houses apart. She was my best friend and we used to make plans of what we were going to do as adults in our lives (even at our young age). I moved away when I was 10 and for years we wrote to each other. I have been looking for her since I started doing genealogy and now I find your sweet soul has left us and gone to heaven. I wait for the day to hug again and plan our lives in heaven sweet friend. “ She and I were friends in junior high and into high school. We were lockermates. I used to throw fits at her because she brought tuna fish salad sandwiches loosely wrapped every single day. RIP, Deena.

“ I met Deena at Holbrook Nursing Home. She would be at the nurse's station when I would visit my Mom, talking to the aides once in a while. She will be missed. You will be in my prayers.

“ I have known Deena for a long time. I always told her she was a diamond in the rough. She could be loud, quick tempered and opinionated but she was also fiercely loyal and the people she loved she loved a lot. I have never seen her as happy as she was the day she married Eddy. She loved the outdoors and all of God's creatures. I saw her pick a baby bat up off the ground and hold it against her chest, comforting it while it snuggled against her.....when she released it it flew away. I was amazed. She told me it was a blessing.....as was she... I love you Deena
