“ Sheila and family, I am so sorry for the loss of Buddy, but I know God welcomed him with open arms. Buddy was always so kind to me when I would see him and would engage in a meaningful conversation. He certainly did love his kids. I remember the times he came to read to the students in my first grade class. We all enjoyed those times. To have him serve in the honor guard at the burial of our son was special to us, too. May God hold you close in the days to come.

Shiela, Me and Patty send our deepest condolences for your loss. Like other boys in the neighborhood, we congregated and explored Excelsior and the surrounding area. Always liked Buddy and later on he worked with me on health inspections while I was at Hardee's on new and remodeled units. I ran into him at the VAMC periodically, we would chat and bring up each other up to date on our lives. He will be sorely missed. I give Buddy Shaffer a slow hand salute and a high toast. 'See you on the other side!'

“ Sheila and Family: I grew up with Buddy just across the hill in Excelsior. As children we played together, and I can't remember fighting with him the way boys do. Buddy loved laughing at a good joke and I felt honored to have participated in Buddy and Sheila's wedding and will miss him. God's speed my ole friend, I'll see you again. Jim Wright
