Though her smile is gone forever
and her hand I cannot touch
I still have so many memories
Of the one I loved so much.
Her memory is now my keepsake
Which with I'll never part.
God has her in his keeping
I have her in my heart.
Sadly missed, but never forgotten.

“ I worked with Ethel at Moore Business forms and we were friends from then on. she was a really good woman with a sense of humor you had to know her well to understand. I remember when "The streaker song came out, and when she went up the aisle in finishing Dept. at Moore's the guys would stand on their machines and yell "Don't look Ethel" she took it all in good stride. she was a remarkable lady, I attended her wedding to Jim Chipps and was so glad to see her so happy, she deserved it, sadly she lost him much to soon. Heaven has another Angel tonight. Rest in Peace my friend.
