“ Aunt Freda was an awesome Aunt. She was always kind and generous toward my family.
I remember stopping across from the Game Farm when we were little and she made us milkshakes. God gave her the gift of hospitality. I remember on Sundays morning when we would go to church, I loved to here all the kids sing together, they had great harmony and everyone was singing from the bottom of their hearts. I would give anything to hear them sing again! Thanks for so many great memories!
