“ Fred was a master teacher & exceptional coach who was a mentor and role model to all who made his acquaintance, be they student-athlete, teacher or coaching colleague. He was always the same in the classroom, on the athletic field or in the locker room with his caring, positive and calm demeanor. Someone once said, "If you do it right, you can make a difference." That certainly was Fred! A man's man, a player's coach and loyal friend who will not soon be forgotten.

“ Fred Newman was an extraordinary man and his passing is mourned by so many. My condolences to Janet and the Newman family, you all have my deepest sympathy.

I always thought I was uniquely blessed by my contact with Fred. But as I read the many comments here, I realize that I am only one of a very large group of people who have been shepherded to a better life through Fred's efforts. The diversity of the group is testimony to the Fred's ability to meet us at the points of our individual needs. Fred used his insights to help, to teach, and to inspire, but never to judge. Fred allowed me the freedom to make mistakes, and learn from them with pride in the effort. Fred nurtured my love of chemistry and physics, and of aviation.

I have a wonderful life, a loving family, a highly successful career as an immunologist, I'm a commercial pilot with 2,500 hours of flight time, and a three-time National Champion driving inboard hydroplanes. Fred Newman inspired all of this. Most importantly, Fred was my friend, for more than 60 years. He taught me to believe in myself, He always had my back. Godspeed Coach Newman.

“ Mr Newman was a teacher who really cared about his students. He was truly one in a million, and the world is a worse place without him in it.

“ Mr. Newman — he will always be “Mr. Newman” to me — wasn’t just a teacher I had for several classes, but a mentor and an influence. While I never pursued a science career, instead pursuing a communications career, I am fascinated with the natural world as a result of his tutelage. He left an indelible mark on me and so many others over the years. I pray that as he’s Gone West, he’s in the presence of our Creator, as I pray that everyone who reads this comment (myself included) will be, too. Believe and be saved.

Janet and Lori and family... my deepest condolences ... Fred was definitely unique in being a good friend. I remember the fun times my family shared in your home, and the dear friend he was to my ex-husband, Donald, when our family was going through really tough times way back... He stood by my husband, even though, at times it seemed that he was the only one who did. God blessed us all with a wonderful man on this earth that gave us "directions" to live our lives the way Christ wants us to live, without yelling or telling, but just by living the way Jesus said we should. And, from my heart, and, from reading the other comments, I see that it worked. I pray for the wonderful comfort and grace for your family of our Lord Jesus in this time.

“ Mr. Newman was more than just my chemistry teacher. He opened up a world of possibilities for me as it related to college and future careers. Mr. Newman was the sole reason I decided to obtain a degree in nuclear engineering, and that decision had such an incredible impact on my life.

I do presentations on career options today for high school kids and I always tells the story of how Mr. Newman expanded my own view of what was possible. He encouraged and inspired so many kids, and I hope every child has a Mr. Newman in their life. I am so thankful that he touched and guided my life in such a profound way.

The passing of a loved one is always so hard, but I hope that his incredible impact on so many lives brings you comfort. He was certainly a wonderful man.

“ With great sadness, I reflect on the passing of my former science teacher, Mr. Fred Newman. He wasn't just a teacher, but also a mentor who guided me on a path that started with joining the Navy Nuclear Power Program and has continued to explore science and technology ever since. His encouragement and support to participate in the WVWC "Energy and Life" summer program, his wisdom and career advice, and his dedication to going beyond his teaching duties have had a profound impact on my life.

Mr. Newman was an inspiring figure who not only taught science but also instilled in his students a curiosity for the world and a desire to aim high. His influence continues to shape my life, and for that, I will be forever grateful.

Thank you, Mr. Newman, for your guidance and inspiration. You will be deeply missed.

“ Surely in the dictionary after the word “gentleman” there must be a picture of Uncle Fred. He was a kind and loving soul who filled every room with joy. He did so much for Lionel and I when we were young and starting out. And he tried to do things anonymously; we just happened to see him a few times. We will forever be grateful and his memory will be treasured in our home.
