“ We will miss our friend Glenda. Her high pitched laughter and her unique personality will be remembered and held precious in our hearts.

We were blessed to become friends with her and Marietta when they were neighbors and helpers to our sweet little Mom until she left us a few years ago.

Glenda's strong faith and her close relationship with God was always apparent when you talked to her. She would always offer a prayer for anyone who was sick, or just needed someone to pray with. She was lonely after losing several family members, and then she lost Marietta, the one always there for her. The memories we made bring us smiles, the biscuits she could put together were delicious. I know she is in heaven now and no more pain or loneliness there with the angels, singing, dancing, and praising God. RIP my friend.
