“ So very sorry for your loss JR was an awesome friend we had not talked in years due to my move to Mn. But anytime we would run into one another it would be just like ole times. He did amazing graphic Ts for my bar the Pickled Iguana and we spent a lot of time hanging out there. He also shared one of his hobbies of making beer with me once, which was a fun time as well. JR you will be missed and leave behind many wonderful memories, much to young to leave this world. Keeping your son and family in my prayers. God Bless you each.

“ I met JR over little jars of dip. He was a nice young man and very easy to talk to. We laughed while I nibbled on his pretzels and dip and I found him to be smart, caring, considerate. I am sorry for your loss. May God enfold you all with His wings and comfort you. May He bless you with the love of one another as you embrace each other to share how much you loved him.

“ J.R. was one of my favorite students when I taught at the high school. He was so intelligent, but didn't want any of his friends to know it because that wouldn't be cool. He always had a sparkle in his eyes and an ornery grin on his face. The year I was senior adviser, we purchased our senior shirts from him.

I am so sad to hear of his passing. He was way too young to go this soon. I send my condolences and prayers to his family. He may be gone, but will never be forgotten.
