“ My Life Giving Memory is this recalled Happening.

On June 14, 1937, JoAnn Lee Thiele, was born a Preemie weighting under 2lbs. Hazel, age 19, in her first Midwife Delivery Career helped the Dr.

Dr. McCoy said, “Keep her warm, nurse her when she cries , she won’t live.”

Hazel was determined that I should live.

Hazel prayed as she slept with me on her stomach to my stomach to keep me warm.

Hazel and Sarah Adkison Young coordinated a list of Gaines Clan Family to sleep with me on their stomach as if I was still in the womb.

The family included Great Grandma Rachel Lee who used a small chest drawer as a bed nestled in the wood logs behind the hot kitchen stove to keep me warm in the daytime. With help from my Mom, Carrie Lee and my Dad, Scrapper Lee, Hazel and the Gaines Clan Family I was INCUBATED ME AT HOME.

Hazel, to me, was a Role Model, a Trailblazer, and a Valiant Lady.

With Warm Memories from the Family of Carrie and Scrapper Lee:

JoAnn & Gary Thiele, Butch Lee, and Rob & Sue Lee And their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren who will long remember Hazel’s wondrous Story Telling.

May the Angels sing Loud and happily for Hazel.

I have fond memories of Hazel helping bake bread at Aletha Chapter. What a wonderful smile she had. Over the years we have exchanged Christmas greetings and notes. The picture of the motorcycle ride made it to a place on my Christmas tree the year I received the picture. Hazel without a doubt is with the angels.

My parent's Ersel and Norma Chidester always thought lovingly of Hazel and they ask often about her. My mother passed in January of this year and I know her and Hazel are now talking over old times. Love hug and prayers from our family to Hazels at this difficult time.*

“ What can anyone say about Hazel? Simply one of the most incredible women ever. The number of lives she touched just in her family tree was amazing and the volume of tears shed today among her family and her many, many friends has to be a record. Love to all and sorry I can't be there for the memorial.

“ My husband, Rev. Barry Moll, was Hazel and Clay's (and young Patty!) Pastor at the Salem United Methodist Church in Gaines in 1975 to 1976. We were married while he was serving there and we were both students at WV Wesleyan College. Hazel and Clay were so kind to two “kids” just starting out in ministry. We remember both of them with much warmth and affection. Our sincere condolences to the family.
