“ Rest In Peace Grandma. You always treated everyone you met like they were important to you personally, remembered everyone's birthday and anniversary or just little details about them and knew how to make someone feel cared about. God gained another angel.

“ Mae was a faithful and steadfast Christian who set an example for all the children she taught at Newlon Methodist Church. For many years with only a prayer, a Bible story read aloud, and some crayons she taught us about God. She was bold and honest in her testimonials and prayers during the services. She was steadfast and full of Hope for friends and family to also share her faith. Mae never hit her light under a bushel; it was there for all to see. What a life.

“ Many people come across our paths thru our lifetime. Some leave us with a feeling of love and gratitude for having known them. That was Mae!! She always smiled, left us laughing, and told us about Jesus. After leaving a room, her joy stayed with us! She was "contageous" with her love for God and Jesus! She never met a stranger! She raised a beautiful large family, and cherished each and every one of them!

She had a heart full of love that knew no bounds! Today, she has "left the room" to be with her greatest love of all, God, but, she leaves in our hearts that feeling of happiness and joy...just by having the honor and privilege of having known her...💖💖💖💖💖💖
💖💖💖 To her family and friends, my deepest love and sympathy,

“ Mae was a sweet and caring person who loved to go to church. Remember her coming up to Marys when i worked there many times she would stay and eat dinner. She would help a person out if she could. It was a pleasure to have known her for so many years. Even attended church services with her. May God comfort and give you all the strength to go through this. Love and Prayers.

“ Mae helped to lay the foundation of my faith in God. She took me to church every summer when I visited my grandparents. Sometimes going out of her way just so I could go with her. What a beautiful soul she is. A bittersweet day for us here on earth and a glorious one for Mae.

“ I'm so sorry, but we know she is in a better place. I think back over the memories with her. And I know that she made her mark in this world. She was well known and well loved by every one she met. I never known of her to turn anyone away. And that's what this world needs more today than ever. Our prayers are with you all may God be with her Family and Friends.

So sorry for your loss. She was a God fearing woman. Always had a smile for everyone she met. I met her through my sister Sandra Tenney. she and Sandra spent a lot of good time together. She was always there to help in time of need. Never will forget her and the few time I spent with Mae and my precious sister. May god be with her family and remember all the great memories you had with your wonderful mother.
