“ Jimmy was a great young man. If you was down and he was around he would make you smile. I never forget the day he was picking at me and threw a little baby field mouse at me and I yelled. But later that day we both ended up laughing about it. Jimmy was the like of the party. When he was in pain he never showed any sign of being in pain. Jimmy will be missed and was known by alot of ppl and loved by alot of ppl. Rest in peace my friend you will be missed. But your memory will live on till we meet again. Your journey on Earth is come to and end for now you can start that new journey God has prepared for you in heaven. We live and miss you and still hard to believe you are gone. And worse part you never said goodbye. But when you went on to heaven a peace of our hearts went with you.
