“ Josh was my student in Senior English, along with his sidekicks: Logan Bonner and Nick Zickefoose. As you can imagine, they kept me laughing. I doubt Josh was a big fan of reading and writing, but he was always in class and smiling. My sympathies go out to his family, his friends and the Buckhannon community. Terri Engnoth

Josh had a wonderful soul. Very kind and loving to everyone he met. We had so much fun hanging out with him at Ralph, Cookie, and Cory's house. Gone way to soon. But 4 wheel in the hills of Heaven our friend. See you again.....Jimmy, Terry Jo, Amy and Ivy.

“ Joshie was like a son to me. He lit up the room when he entered. There was never a dull moment with him. He had you laughing all of the time. Josh was a very happy person. He had his life planned out and was happy about it. He was a very good friend to my son. And for that Josh thank you. Thank you for coming into our lives and making very special memories with my family. Thank you for being my one and only Joshie. Thank you for being just like one of my own kids. And most importantly thank you Josh for being you. I love you son. 💔💔💔 You will be deeply missed by my family. R.I.P buddy till we meet again.
