“ My Dear Friend and cousin Judith Lee, I am already missing you and your wonderful laugh and fun times together. When we were kids we were always in trouble but could never stop laughing whether it was at Mama Miles kitchen table or when we were playing at the schoolhouse. I loved stacking hayshocks with you on Pop Borams farm and playing school in the school house. I feel so blessed that we had so many great summer days together. Much love, Susie
