“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all the family. I remember Karen and her siblings catching the school bus at my house when she was little girl. In the winter I would have them go into our house by the woodstove to get warm. I would go outside and watch for the bus to come down the road. Such well behaved children and such sweet memories. So sorry for your loss. Dave and Bobbie Shreve

“ So sorry for your loss..Karen & I were RN's working together for a couple of years. She was a Blessing to many others & loved her work! I was able to see & talk to her in recent months as my Mom is at Mtn Memories too. She did remember me & we shared hugs each time I was there :(She will be sadly missed but her suffering is finally over! God Bless you all :)
