"Grizz" loved the out of doors. If he wasn't working, you could find him on the river bank, rod in hand, with a smile on his face. He was a talented fisherman and avid hunter. He also loved working in his vegetable garden, but more so, giving away his vegetables to family and friends. Listening to bluegrass gospel music and frying up his catch to be eaten with a pan of biscuits fresh out of the oven with many other dishes he made and served to waiting buddies as they gathered for the hunting season were some of his favorite pastimes. He was employed by the WV Department of Highways at Kanawha Head. Mr.

Arbogast was a Methodist by faith.
