“ This saddens me so much. I just talked to Linda a short time ago. To me she seemed like such a kind and caring person. She was a cousin, but most of all she was my friend. She was honest and she had a genuine soul. I will miss her and the world is a more lonely place with her not in it. I will keep my memories of her close to my heart. 😞

“ My dear friend's parting has left a hole in my life which will never be filled, as it will be for many. I met Linda 30 years ago when her hair was long and straight, and she wore long, flowing skirts. My first impression of her was she was a hippie-sort young mother. When I met Carl, well, I already knew him and liked him back in school. Linda and I hit it off immediately, and she was far from being a hippie. Our relationship grew from being young mothers to "older" grandmothers. Her hair got short and the skirts disappeared from her wardrobe. We drank a lot of coffee, gathered a lot of laughs, a lot of tears, and a mutual love and trust. She was kind, compassionate, frequently filled with wisdom, and her humor pushed me through many days. She could always make me laugh, even at myself. She wanted things RIGHT, and most always she WAS right or it just didn't matter. Carl, Misty, Eric, Colleen, Phyllis, and all the family-- you will be in my prayers and Linda always in my heart. --Barbara
