“ Always like a mother to me..She will be greatly missed by all her family. I remember when visiting with family, I would go outside and pick some daisies and black eyed susan's and give them to Aunt Loan. She would get a glass from her cabinet and put water on them and put on her table for everyone to see..Love you Aunt Loan..I miss you so much. RIP Enjoy everything the good Lord puts before you!

“ When I first met my late husband Norman Woody, Lona Bell's brother we became best friends we did everything together. I thank God He allowed me to talk with her if even over the phone before He took her home. She was a great friend and a wonderful Aunt and she will be missed.From her sister-in-law/friend Louise and her nieces & nephews Julie, Frank, Joetta, Jeff from Georgia.
