“ Retta,

I'm still in disbelief that your no longer here on this earth. We didn't speak often, but when we did, we laughed so hard. Im going to miss those calls. I also know that your at peace now and no longer in pain from life. I will see you again.

“ You came into my life close to 20 years ago, (more like I came into your life like a fart in a whirlwind) you saved my ass more times than I can count. You brought me in, took me under your wing and made me part of the family so many years ago. I will forever be grateful for you. You will be missed by many. Love you Retta.
