“ Opal, Debbie, Denise and Steve: Sorry to learn of your Dad's passing. I will never forget the Christmas that your Mom and Dad welcomed my Mom and me into your home. The memory of the snow storm has always stuck with me, but more than that, the warm memories of spending Christmas Eve with your family, and your Dad playing Santa Clause for the family and then taking us with him to play Santa for some of the neighbors. Your Dad may be gone for now, but he has left lasting memories with many.

“ Opal and family, I send my thoughts and prayers to you and your family members regarding the death of your Father. May God grant you comfort and peace at this time and in the future. I did not know about your Mother, so also extend my condolences on the death of your Mother. It is especially difficult to love your loved ones so close together and during holidays. I will keep you and your family in my prayers.
