“ Russell was my Brother N Law, He will be missed. We have shared a lot of laughs, jokes, & it was always a fun time around him. He always said what he felt. He wasn't in to all the new stuff he loved keeping the old traditions at hand. I can still remember the amazement I felt watching him bring wood in. Most of the men I have watched, went to the woods with a tractor, truck, power saw, & sometimes a wood splitter. Not Russell he would head to the woods with a horse, trailer, power saw, and a axe. Shortly later he would come back through the field leading his horse with a trailer load of wood whistling as he led him in. He always made sure you laughed every time you talked to him. We will miss you Russell rest in peace.
