“ So any years, so many memories. I knew Sandy from her teenage and college days. Then our kids were young at the same time and into so much when they could be together. We had many laughs together (loved her sense of humor) and many serious philosophical discussions. I will miss her greatly. Butch and "boys", I am so sorry for your loss. Much love to you all. Bev

“ Bob and Family...We had the opportunity to see you last evening at the viewing. Your faith, strength and your love and support for each other reflects this amazing lady who instilled Godly characteristics in your lives. We heard stories from former students whose love and appreciation for her has remained with them throughout their lives. We enjoyed speaking with Michael, Mark (and family) and Matt. We came to offer you encouragement and in turn we were encouraged by each of you. It is said that memories are God's gift to us as a way of holding on to our loved ones when our arms can not. We pray such memories fill you with laughter, love, comfort and peace.
Love in Christ, Pastor Ed and Janet

“Sandy Garrison and I began our teaching journeys on the very same day, decades ago, at Buckhannon-Upshur High School. From that first day, a rare and beautiful friendship bloomed—effortless, full of laughter, and rooted in shared purpose. We quickly became not just colleagues, but kindred spirits.

There are no words vast enough to express how deeply I loved her, or how much I cherish the memories we created over the years. Our trips to the cabin in the mountains were filled with the kind of joy that lingers for a lifetime—crackling fires, heartfelt conversations, and the unmistakable comfort of Sandy’s good cooking wafting through the air.

One of my favorite memories is the time she came to visit me in Arizona. We crossed the border into Mexico and spent the day haggling over prices, giggling like schoolgirls, full of mischief and sunshine. It was pure Sandy—adventurous, warm, always up for a little fun “ Sandy has been a part of my life for over 50 years. She married my brother and was best friends with my sister. She joined our crazy family and fit right in. Her sense of humor could not be matched. She had a heart of gold and was willing to help or lend an ear anytime it was needed. We spent hours on the phone over the years and she helped guide me through some rough times. We both got diagnosed with cancer around the same and she checked on me even as she was going through treatments herself. Sandy was a wonderful mom and loved her “boys”. More importantly she loved my brother through the thick and thins of life. She will be missed by everyone.
