“ My deepest sympathy to Brian, family and friends. Shannon was the most special person you would ever meet. Her beauty, kind soul and loving heart always made things better. I'll never forget our special day at Venice Beach when she came to visit family in FL. She was there for me thru so many difficult times in my life if only to listen. She was my heart Sister. I'm forever grateful to have had such a beautiful person in my life. She has left her mark on my heart and will never be forgotten. Her smile and laughter is forever instilled in my memories. Till we meet again, RIP my sweet, special friend.

“ My heart is breaking. Shannon was a dear friend of mine. In High School she was one of my best friends. We stayed in touch without the years and our boys became good friends at one point. She always welcomed both of my sons with open arms. Thank you Shannon for being the person you were. So honest and outspoken! I have always loved that about you! I will always cherish the memories we shared together. You are going to be missed by so many people!
Sending my love and prayers for her family!!
Rest in peace my dear friend! Love you always!

“ My Sincere Sympathy Brian and family at such a tragic loss. Shannon was always a bright and shining star. We never personally met, but found each other on Facebook as a cousin of a cousin, of a cousin. I knew her dad, Jerry, and my heart aches for all her family. Her little granddaughter will have a new guardian angel. Thoughts and prayers be with you all. Latricia Marteney Haynam, Minerva ohio

“ My heart is breaking. Shannon was such a free spirit, always was. The memories I have of our childhood and crazy teenage years I will forever cherish. She always reached out if she felt I was sad to see if I just needed to talk. Although thru the years we became busy with raising our families, we always seemed to pick up where we left off when we talked or ran into each other. My love and prayers to Brian and the children for I know she will be dearly missed.
