

Shirley Temple Gum McQuain

June 6, 1936 - January 24, 2020

Shirley Temple Gum McQuain, age 83, of Richwood, WV, died Friday, January 24, 2020, at the J.W. Ruby Memorial Hospital in Morgantown. She was born June 6, 1936, in Webster County, a daughter of the late Roy and Elvrie Baldwin Lough. In addition to her parents, she was also preceded in death by one son Tommy Gum; one daughter Kathy Hardesty; two brothers: Gordon and Kenny Lough; and two sisters: Laurie Bankhead and Rosie Cochran. She is survived by one son Johnny Gum and wife Linda of Summersville; four daughters: Connie and husband Bill Gibson of Marietta, OH, Donna and husband Randy Zickefoose of Buckhannon, Bonnie Gum of Buckhannon, and Shirley Gum of Marietta; one brother Delbert Lough of Cottle, WV; one sister Carolyn Hall of Flatwoods; numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Shirley was a devout Jehovah's Witness and an avid collector of antiques.

At the request of the deceased, the body will be cremated. A private memorial service will be held by the family at a later date.

Tribute Wall

MC

“ So sorry to hear that Shirley has passed away. I first met her more than a decade ago in Buckhannon. She was so kind and caring. She really loved God and held on tightly to hope of a better future. I know she dearly loved her family and you were always on her mind. I often saw her in the store even when I moved away. she always had a beautiful smile and kind words no matter what she was experiencing in her life. I will miss talking to her. My deepest sympathy to all of you.

Maggie Cornell - February 07, 2020 at 02:23 PM

“ Shirley, Donna, and family, sorry to learn of your mother's passing. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. If you read this Shirley, I would love you to find me on facebook. I miss you dearly. It's been a long time. We both have always loved you and your family like our own.

Rhonda Brooks - February 01, 2020 at 04:49 AM