

Tiara Nicole Howard

March 17, 1989 - May 13, 2023

Tiara Nicole Howard, age 34, of French Creek, took her place among the angels on Saturday, May 13, 2023. She was born on March 17, 1989, in Buckhannon, WV. She was a loving mother to Kendall Brooke and a precious daughter to her mother Joni Kay Nelson Howard and her father Ronnie Howard, who both survive. Also surviving are her paternal grandmother Janet L. Howard; maternal grandmother Kay Nelson Hudgins; special loving aunt Susan Meeks; her partner in life Jason Brown; and many loving aunts, uncles, and cousins, along with her adored four-legged babies Rocco and Lexi. Tiara was preceded in death by her sister Ciara Brooke Howard and grandparents: Roscoe "Buck" Nelson, C. Earl Howard, and Fred Hudgins. She and her sister are undoubtedly reunited in Heaven and most likely surrounded by all the sweet dogs they have rescued, loved, and lost over the years.

Tiara was a 2007 graduate of B-U High and a 2011 graduate of WV Wesleyan College. Entrepreneurialism and hard work were instilled in her from a very young age as she grew up helping in her mom's convenience store, riding and navigating the roads across country with her dad in his eighteen-wheeler and working in her mom's real estate business, earning her real estate license at the age of 18. Her family was the center of her life. She had a true spirit of adventure as she spent her childhood skiing the mountains of Canaan Valley and roaming the hills of West Virginia on her four-wheeler, knowing all the best trails and back roads of Upshur County by heart. Her love of classic country music accompanied her in all her journeys. She made friends everywhere she went and never left anyone's heart untouched by her unwavering compassion for all those she met along the way. Tiara will be remembered more than anything for her kind heart and humility. She was quick to do for others without expectation of anything in return. Though her time on earth was too short, she was a gift to all who knew her. She was a cherished daughter, mother, granddaughter, niece, cousin, and friend to so many.

The family will receive friends on Sunday, May 21, 2023, from 11:00 AM-1:00 PM, at the Heavner and Cutright Funeral Chapel. Private graveside services and interment will be held at the French Creek Memorial Gardens.

“ Share a memory...where would I start? I remember when we were really little, and you would come over and hop right on my bike and take off- you had zero interest in playing with me haha. I would go to your house and end up playing Barbies with Ciara. At some point, we found the things we had in common. We must have put thousands of miles on those little four wheelers you all had- riding them wherever we wanted to go. When one was out of commission, I would ride behind you and hold on for dear life. You always surprised with a new trail or a new shortcut you had found to some cool spot in the middle of nowhere. I will never forget when we flipped on one together, and we were both lying on the ground watching that thing in slow motion up on its back tires about to flip on top of us. Like a freaking ninja, you kicked it, and it fell forward instead of on top of us. You were tough, and I admired that so much about you. I wasn't tough like you were. I think we were about nine when we stole cigarettes from your mom's store and smoked them in the woods. I felt so guilty I couldn't sleep. I woke my mom up in the middle of the night and confessed it all. And I am pretty sure we drank our first beer together at some point- warm and mixed with lemonade- yum. We went to that Everclear concert at Wesleyan and somehow ended up on stage with them. We played a whole lot of Sonic the Hedgehog, too. You were always a little quiet, but your mind was brilliant and so clever- you would bust out with the lyrics to every song. You're the first white girl I ever heard rap, and you were actually hilariously good at it. We laughed and cried together. I will forever miss those belly laughs, and I know now that the time I spent with you was God-given. Having you as my best friend during that time of life was a blessing. People say that angels are among us, and you, my sweet friend, were one. I am so sad that you only got 34 years, but I have to trust that that was part of a plan that I just cannot understand. I wish I could have seen your daughter look at you and call you "mom". I am so sorry that I missed out on that, but I promise you that I will make sure she knows what an incredible person you were. I will remember you forever, Tiara.
