

Vanna Anderson Cogar

April 14, 1923 - May 18, 2016

Vanna Anderson Cogar, age 93, of the Gaines Community, died Wednesday, May 18, 2016, at Holbrook Nursing Home. She was born on April 14, 1923, in Webster County, a daughter of the late Floyd and Francesenna Perrine Anderson. She was united in marriage on August 11, 1943, to George “Jim” Cogar who preceded her in death on December 25, 1977. She was also preceded in death by one daughter Joyce Sargent; one grandson Jamie Loudin; three brothers: Roland, Dolan, and Loren; four half-brothers: Willard, Ora, Flay, Ferry; one sister Rose Cutlip; and one daughter-in-law Leahbelle “Belle” Cogar.

She is survived by one daughter Betty and husband Alex Carroll of Charles Town, WV; two sons: Jimmy Cogar and Floyd “Snork” and wife Shirley Cogar all of the Gaines Community; nine grandchildren; sixteen great grandchildren; two brothers: Hunter Anderson and wife Jayne of Rock Cave, Floyd Anderson Jr. and wife Janet of Buckhannon; three sisters: Peggy Daniels of Knoxville, TN, and Dottie and Louise Anderson both of Buckhannon; several nieces and nephews; and a special nephew Bob Cogar of Clarksburg.

Vanna was a loving mother and grandmother. Memories of holidays and Sunday dinners will always be cherished by family and friends. Mrs. Cogar was a member of the Salem Ridge United Methodist Church.

Vanna’s family would like to extend a special thank you to the caregivers that took care of Vanna at her home and also to the staff at Holbrook Nursing Home for their special care.

Friends will be received at the Salem Ridge UM Church on Saturday, May 21, 2016, from 12-1:00 PM, the funeral hour, with Pastor David Jessie officiating. Interment will follow in the Salem Ridge Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family request donations be made to WV Hospice, 6 Hartman Plaza, Buckhannon, WV 26201.

I will always cherish the memories of the great times at Aunt Vannie's and Uncle Jim's. We always had great Fun. Aunt Vannie and her drop biscuits and Gravy. I sure will miss her. My Love and prayes go out to all the family. For such a little lady she had a great big heart. I loved her stories, specially the one of us being related to Frank and Jessie James.

“ The only Grandmother I knew..... I believe you are truly never gone until your memory fades. Rest assure that I have many lovely and beautiful memories that I will cherish forever like fishing and catching craw crabs in the creek, jumping off the rock under her pine tree in front of the house and those times she attempted to make every moment special. I have been so fortunate to have had her as an influence in my life. I believe a piece of who I have become is due to some of her qualities and attributes. She was my "sunshine" Grandma!!
