After graduating from Elkins High School, he served in active military in the US Army during the Korean War. Following his discharge in 1954, he was united in marriage to Wilda Jacquelyn Coberly Cooper on August 14, 1955, who survives. Also surviving are two sons: Sterling Glenn Cooper and wife Donna of French Creek and Allan Lane Cooper and fiancée Georgina Turman of Bedford, Virginia; two daughters: Suzanne Renée and husband Albert Cooke of Glen Burnie, Maryland and Kimberly Michelle and husband Rick Strevel of Culpeper, VA; five grandchildren and their spouses; seven step grandchildren and their spouses and 18 great grandchildren. Roscoe was a self-taught guitarist and played twenty-seven years in his Maryland bluegrass band- The Blueridge Mountaineers. After retirement he moved with his beloved Wilda back to West Virginia to the home in French Creek where he rededicated his life to Christ and played his guitar for the Lord with the weekly television program "Mission Outreach with Rev. Earl Cayton" as well as at many of the local churches in the area, calling the Mission Independent Church in Walkersville his home church. Roscoe was a well loved and respected man who never shared a mean word and always tried to get a laugh. Laughter was his legacy as well as kindness and love. He was a fine example of Gods Perfect love and will be missed tremendously.
