“ Grace and family, When Andy, you and Tiffany moved to Fishing Camp, you became not only our neighbors and friends, but also a part of our family. Andy was a good, kind man. He did much for many people, but never bragged about it. I was not aware of all the good he did for the Shriners and the kids. We considered Andy a brother and were very fortunate to have known him. He suffered greatly in the last few years. You went above and beyond in his care. Love you all. Martin and Jean Rohr
