“ For Rachael and family...our love and prayers to you and your family.....Warren had a gift for always making other's laugh..what a wonderful gift from God, to make others laugh and be happy for moments in time! His Grandma married our grandpa, and when Grandad Lewis knew that Warren was coming by, he would already start laughing, knowing that Warren would have another story or tale to tell him!

You "Golden Girls", as our Dad would call you, we're taught by our Dad, he loved and cherished you each and everyone, and we loved you too..all of your family...and , like us, most of your family is now together in Heaven, there to welcome Warren home! What a joy to know that we are guaranteed eternal life through our loving God and His Son, Jesus. We bring nothing into this world, but, we do take one thing with us when we die, the love we had and gave away to others when we died. Warren had that love for others, and he is surrounded now by the greatest unconditional love of all...and, he will be waiting for all the rest of us...holding you and yours up in prayers and our love, The kids of Dixie and Geraldine McDaniels, Roger, LeAnna, Sherry, Merla.

“ To Rachel, Terry, Lisa and family, So sorry to hear the news of Warrens passing. He was always a good friend and always had a fish or turkey story to tell. We will always remember him coming to Uncle Frank and Aunt Fernie's for hunting season and he and Diane's dad seeing who get the most squirrels or biggest buck. What good times we have as memories. RIP "WHITEY". Diane and Chuck Dulaney Lena Smith Sneberger.

“ Fond memories of Warren, Rachel and the girls. Remember him sitting in the front yard, under the tree with my dad with their transistor radios blaring the ballgame. Great memories...
