

Wesley Wayne Depoy

October 11, 1939 - October 17, 2020

Wesley Wayne Depoy, age 81, of Hinkle Ridge Road, the Alexander community, died at JW Ruby Memorial Hospital in Morgantown on Saturday, October 17, 2020. He was born in Alton on October 11, 1939, a son of the late Charles and Della Howes Depoy. In addition to his parents, he was also preceded in death by six brothers: Charles, Will, Clyde, John, Ralph, and Walter "Buck" Depoy and two sisters: Vera and Virgie.

He is survived by one daughter; one sister Mary Russell of Belvidere, Illinois; and several nieces and nephews.

Wesley was a legend of his time in the community of Alexander. He was loved by everyone and well known for his moonshine. He enjoyed life and lived it to the fullest.

A celebration of life service will be held on Saturday, May 29, 2021, at 2:00 PM, at the Alton Campground with a graveside service to follow at the Indian Camp Cemetery with Pastor Jason Depoy officiating.

“ Uncle Wess I will miss your ornery attitude. Your blunt honesty. One of my best memories of us is when I was a little girl and I was visiting dad (John) and we were at the old bar in Alexander you put money in the juke box and played sweet dreams and you danced with me. I love you and I am sorry that I didn't stop by before you left this world. Let dad know we will all be together agian soon enough. Love Jonie.

“ Good memories with him when my family owned the bar in Alexander. He was always willing to protect Ink and myself anytime. Memories of him dancing and just having a good time. He was a part of our childhood life everyday for 8 years. Rest In Peace ❤️
